

WEEK COMMENCING 15TH NOVEMBER 2021

PLAYDAYS NURSERY

LINGFIELD

What have we been up to?

Babies

This week in the baby room our sign has been 'drink'. We have had lots of sensory trays to explore this week, including shredded paper, rice and an autumn themed tray too. We also enjoyed celebrating Children In Need on Friday – wearing our pyjamas and playing party games!

Toddlers

This week in toddlers our sign has also been 'drink'. We have had a busy week; we celebrated national nursery rhyme week and national road safety week! On Friday we also had a Children In Need celebration, wearing our PJs and taking part in lots of spotty activities and party games!

Pre-School

This week we have looked at the phonics sound 'kings are kicking k,k,k'. For road safety week, we have talked about and looked at road safety, using the cars/bikes and traffic lights in the garden! Inside we made road safety pictures and re-enacted road safety scenarios.

On Friday we took part in Children In Need; we wore our pyjamas, took part in Children In Need themed activities, played party games, and had a picnic tea!

Check out Tapestry for more of the fun things we have been up to this week!

Next Week...

Babies – Next week our sign will be 'sit down'.

Toddlers – Next week our sign will be 'garden'.

Preschool – Next week our phonics sounds is loud lions I, I, I.

Late Collections

We have a number of children being collected outside of their pre-arranged session times. We adhere to ratios set out by Ofsted, and reoccurring lateness comes at a cost the nursery. Therefore, any lateness will now be charged as per our parent contracts.

If you need to change your booking pattern please see Gemma or Sarah.

Christmas Nominations

At Playdays Nursery we like to recognise our team for their achievements. Therefore, we are asking parents to nominate a staff member they feel deserves recognition. Please either fill one of our nomination slips in and post it in the designated box or email Gemma/Sarah with your nomination.
